

Using your RFID card

To charge with your RFID card, first plug your car into the charger. Then, tap the card on the designated area to the right of the charger light, as indicated by the green section in the illustration.

You will hear a single beep before your car begins charging.

To stop your charging session, tap the card on the same area, and wait for the same beep.

